- ✔ Discovering Montmartre's artistic heritage by visiting the Sacré-Cœur Basilica and wandering through its bohemian streets.

Itinerary

Day 1

Morning

Start your day with a walk along the Seine River, taking in views of Notre-Dame Cathedral and the famous bridges. Grab a fresh croissant and coffee from a local bakery nearby.

Midday

Visit the Louvre Museum exterior and explore the Tuileries Garden on foot, enjoying the sculptures and fountains. Take a casual lunch at a budget-friendly café nearby.

Afternoon

Head towards the Eiffel Tower, strolling through Champs de Mars park. Enjoy the park ambiance and take photos. Walk around the nearby streets with small shops and street vendors.

Evening

Walk towards the lively Latin Quarter. Have dinner at a local bistro offering affordable French cuisine. Enjoy evening views of the illuminated monuments.

Day 2

Morning

Explore the Le Marais district on foot, visiting Place des Vosges and local artisanal shops. Grab a light breakfast at a neighborhood café.

Midday	Continue walking through Le Marais to the Picasso Museum or the Carnavalet Museum for a low-cost cultural experience. Have lunch at a falafel or crêpe stall, popular in this area.
Afternoon	Wander over to the Ile Saint-Louis for a peaceful walk and try the famous Berthillon ice cream. Visit small local boutiques and enjoy the historic ambiance.
Evening	Stroll to Bastille and enjoy an evening meal at a casual eatery. Experience some local nightlife or return to your accommodation for rest.

Day 3
Morning	Head to Montmartre, starting with a visit to Sacré-Cœur Basilica. Walk around the Place du Tertre to see street artists and craftspeople working.
Midday	Find a budget-friendly café for lunch near Montmartre. Take your time exploring small streets and hidden gardens in the area.
Afternoon	Walk down towards Pigalle area, noticing the contrast between historic and modern Parisian life. Stop for coffee and people-watching at a local café.
Evening	Return towards central Paris and enjoy your last evening meal at a local brasserie. Walk along the Seine at night to see the city’s famous illumination.
